

Hello folks

Here's what you're being offered, it's a KYL match, with stages. Not only is this a .22lr event, but there's centerfire portion also. Will wonders never cease

Now here's the usual match information.

Classes will be the regular MoBeach Open, Match, & Sport.

Sport, Match & Open class will be competing at 50 yards for .22 lr. It's 300 yards for centerfire. Max centerfire is .308 win. Same classes here also.

Check in 15 to 30 minutes before the start of your confirmed relay.

Rimfire Relays will be at 8 a.m., 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11 a.m., and 12 p.m.

Centerfire relays will be at 10 a.m., 11 a.m., and 12 p.m.

As usual, each competitor will also serve as a score keeper for another competitor.

If you're a new competitor, it will be explained to you .

Rimfire shooters will have 5 minutes for equipment setup and unlimited sighting shots on #1 plate target before competition begins.

Centerfire shooters will have 8 minutes for set up & sighting shots on Shoot 'n See target at 300 yards.

As always there will be a 5050 raffle to benefit the local Disabled American Veterans. This is a charity thing we do. So be generous, we have your email, and know where you live!

Now here's the part you've all been anxiously waiting for, the course of fire.

☆ if you're a new competitor and don't know what class you'd be in, the info is listed on the Monument Beach Sportsman's website on the .22lr Match Series page. ☆

☆☆ if after that you're still confused, perplexed, dumbfounded, puzzled, baffled, bewildered, befuddled, mystified, disconcerted, confounded or even flummoxed, then email Tony.☆☆

Remember this is a fun match for most of you. Your only competition is yourself, so come, have a coffee & muffins. Then bitch, whine, & complain about how much you suck !

Thank you
